RULES/RACE FLOW:

WARMUP

The warmup flow pattern will be followed after launching from the dock. All participants are to stick to the warmup flow pattern until they are called to the Starting Zone. This is not a closed course race, i.e. there will be other boat traffic on the river, so it is important to be watching for not only other rowers, but other boats.

START/FINISH

The start will be a head race style start. Start zones are setup as shown on the map to stage boats going into the starting area. This will allow boats to have the maximum amount of warmup time, and still be ready for the race. The safety boats on the water will be calling boats into the starting zones. The traffic flow for the warmup, start zones and start/finish area is shown on the map. After finishing, the boats are to proceed directly to the launching/returning docks shown on the maps.

CHECK POINTS

There are five check points along the way during which you'll be awarded a card at each checkpoint to makeup a 5 card poker hand. At each checkpoint, you will be required to pass between the floating buoy and the checkpoint station (dock or boat). The person at the checkpoint will verbally assign you a poker card, note this down on a piece of paper and communicate it to the Finish. There will be a safety boats close enough to each check point to ensure boats are on course correctly arriving and leaving checkpoints.

NO PASSING

On the course, there will be no overtaking in the following areas:

- The no passing zone near the START/FINISH area as marked on the course overview map. Bow numbers will be checked at the start and finish of the no passing zone.
- Each of the Checkpoints. Two boats cannot be overlapping on any part of the boat as they pass between the checkpoint buoy and the station.
- The boat which is deemed to be doing the passing will be the boat that incurs the penalty.

PENALTIES

A penalty of 60 secs. will be added to the rowers' time for passing in the no passing zone or at checkpoints. A penalty will apply to every occurrence of no passing if more than one occurrence takes place.

PRIZES:
